

English Coaching and training

This is a highly interactive English course given by a native speaking teacher where students receive a lot of individual attention. It is designed to help students to think in English, improve their comprehension and to perform better in the IELTS exams.

2 hours per day 4 days per week.

Every 2 days new English material chosen from the BBC will be introduced. Students must prepare for each session by listening to an MP3 file, reading the text and learning the vocabulary. Each 2 hour classroom period is as follows.

1. A Vocabulary test will be held each day
2. Discussion and analysis (based on current text)
 - a. Students read aloud
 - b. Students discuss the meaning of each sentence/paragraph
 - c. The context of the vocabulary is discussed.
 - d. The Teacher provides immediate correction
 - e. Students are encouraged to discuss around the topic
3. Grammar and pronunciation (first 4 weeks)
 - a. In the first 4 weeks
 - b. Students individually learn how to improve their pronunciation by using simple tools.
 - c. Basic English grammar and sentence syntax is discussed so that students can improve their composition
4. Document style and content (second 4 weeks)
 - a. In the second 4 weeks
 - b. Students will be taught how to create perfectly styled documents and how to improve their writing.
5. Home work

The Homework is very much related to the daily coaching sessions and is intended to give the student a more intensive English experience. As well as the daily homework which is required to prepare for the classroom sessions there will be weekly assignments and group projects.

- a. Watching television programs in English.
Students will be expected to watch English language TV programs.
- b. Written assignments
Students will be required to write an article once per week about a particular TV program.
- c. Group assignments
Each month as a group students will prepare a scene out of one of Shakespeare's plays and present it as a group.
- d. Email chains (story game)
Students will create stories by sending emails to each other
- e. SMS chains (spelling game)
Students will have to execute English learning tasks as directed by an SMS message
